Expect Marshall To Complete His Testimony Today

Gen. Omar Bradley Will Probably Be Next To Testify

By JAMES LEE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Defense Secretary Marshall today took the Senate witness stand for the seventh time in the probe of Gen. MacArthur's dismissal and began a preliminary summation of the administration's case.

Senators were hopeful that Marshall's testimony could be completed by early afternoon, clearing the way for another phase of the foreign and military policy investigation.

Only eight senators were present as the defense chief began his windup appearance before the armed services-foreign relations committee, one of whose members urged a "compromise victory" to end the Korean war.

Gen. Bradley To Follow

Marshall will be followed by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, other Army Secretary Pace. Secretary members of the joint chiefs, and of State Acheson will be a later witness.

The call for a victory compromise was sounded by Sen. Fulbright (D) Ark., who took issue with MacArthur's statement that there is "no substitute for victory".

Fulbright said:

"Of course if we have to choose between victory and defeat, we take victory. But we should look for some substitute compromise for victory and unconditional surrender."

Fulbright denied he was proposing "appeasement". He said it "perhaps would have been better in World War II not to have des-

Msgr. Schwendeman Anniversary Speaker Here On Sunday

St. Mary's church was filled to capacity, on Sunday morning, when the Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving was sung at 8:00 a. m., opening the forty-first anniversary celebration of the founding of the society in Lawrence county.

Portraying sincere devotion on Mother's Day, the procession of the hierarchy and clergy began as the senior male choir sang the ancient Catholic hymn of the fifth century, "On this day Oh Beautiful Mother".

Arrayed in rich gold vestments, the officers of the Holy Mass filled the sanctuary, forming a striking contrast to the deep scarlet of the hierarchy and the penetential deep black of the monastic monks. Choir boys, acolytes, thurifer and boat bearer, followed by torch bearers, served to enrich the beauty of the impressive scene.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Presides

Presiding from his Pre-Dieu in the sanctuary was the Right Rev. Monsignor Francis J. Schwendeman, S. Th. D. J. C. D. Chancellor of the Diocese of Columbus, Ohio, as the Holy Mass began. The Rev. Francis M. McCarter, Pastor of St. Mary church, was the cele-

Expect U.N. To Pass Embargo

Would Put Embargo On War Shipments To Communist China

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK, May 14.—(INS)—The U.N. sanctions committee, by 11-to-0 vote, today recommended a world-wide embargo on the shipment of any war material to Communist China.

Egypt abstained.

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 14.—An embargo on all shipments of war goods to Communist China will be recommended today to the U.N. Assembly's 60-member political committee in a "hard boiled U.S. resolution.

The 12-member sanctions group, known officially as "the additional measures committee," is scheduled for an all-day session.

To Support Embargo

Eleven of the tweleve delegates are ready to cast their votes in support of the embargo. Egypt may abstain.

Other members of the sanctions group are the U.S., Britain, France, Canada, Australia, Turkey, Venezuela, Brazil, the Philippines, Belgium and Mexico.

Clamping a U.N. embargo on Red China would be the second major punitive step against Mao Tse-Tung. The first one was the labeling of Mao as an aggressor.

Russia refused to participate in the sanction group and is certain to announce its defiance of the embargo once the Assembly has given final approval.

U.N. Planes In Big Attempt To Smash Buildup

Report Red Force Of 625,000 Men About Ready To Open Drive

By ROBERT SCHAKNE
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

TOKYO, May 15—(Tuesday)—Communist troops, spearheading a 625,000-man force, expanded their bridgehead south of the Soyang river Monday on the central Korean front in their principal build-up area.

A terse front dispatch said merely that the Red troops which have been reported inactive for the past three days enlarged their bridgehead "against little United Nations opposition."

It was not immediately clear whether the new action in the area east of Chunchon was the start of the long-awaited "second round" of the Red spring offensive.

Big Air Assault

Droves of United Nations planes unleashed a big air assault over the whole Korean front and the enemy's rear today in an effort to stave off an imminently expected 625,000-man Red offensive.

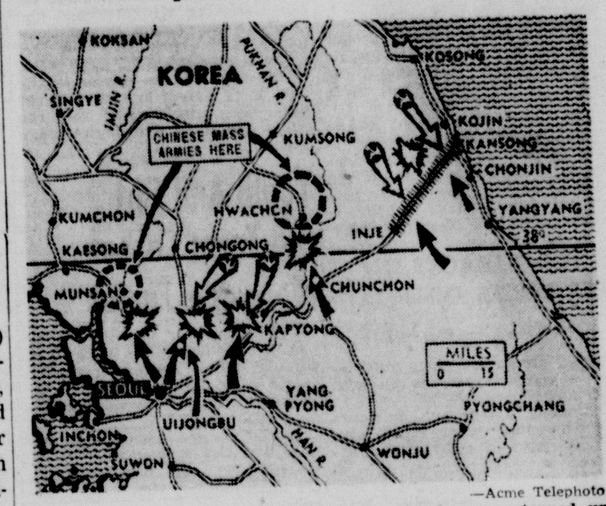

The airmen struck as Communist troops stopped an Allied drive up the east coast and massed elsewhere north of a no man's land belt for the anticipated smash at a floodlight-equipped UN line across the entire peninsula.

A nonstop Allied air campaign was renewed at dawn Monday with intensified fury, mowing down additional hundreds of Chinese and North Korean soldiers, wrecking rail-highway arteries and blowing up ammunition and fuel dumps.

A monday night U.S. Fifth Air Force summary said UN tactical planes concentrated primarily on KOREA—Allies' around-the-clock aerial offensive was stepped up (blast symbols) in an effort to keep the enemy off balance as he massed troops for second phase of smash spring offensive. Heaviest fighting was in the east where Reds fought fiercely for control of Inje-Kansong highway (shaded strip), believed to be their main route of supply to the eastern front. Latest reports said the highway was left as a no-man's land. On the central and western fronts, ground fighting was comparatively light as United Nations patrols (black arrows) kept stabbing ahead to determine the strength of the Communist concentrations.

Margaret Truman To Make Two-Month Trip Abroad

By MARTHA KEARNEY

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(INS)—The White House announced today that Margaret Truman will sail on the S.S. America on May 26 for a two-month tour of Europe.

The White House said the president's daughter plans to visit England, France, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and Italy.

White House Social Secretary Mrs. James M. Helm said that Miss Truman has no singing engagements scheduled, and that she will be accompanied by her mother's personal secretary, Miss Reathel Odum.

Mrs. Helm said:

Never Been Abroad

"Margaret has never been abroad and this seemed a good time to take a pleasure trip."

Mrs. Helm said the president's daughter, who left early this morning for New York will return to the United States in July on an American ship. She has no reservation as yet for her return.

Miss Truman will stay at hotels rather than with private individuals on her trip. No information is available on whether she will meet heads of government while she is away or whether she will be strictly a tourist.

Miss Truman also has given no indication yet as to whether she will attend any of the European's music festivals scheduled for this summer.

Byron Copeland, 41, a former air force pilot from Arlington, Va., suffered back injuries and cuts and bruises. His condition was fair.

State Senate Near Decision On Income Tax

By JOHN PAGET
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, May 14.—(INS)—The general assembly today scheduled another abbreviated work week which may be highlighted by an attempt of administration forces to hammer the proposed income tax through the Senate.

Not since the so-called "emergency" taxes were enacted by a Democratic-controlled assembly almost 15 years ago has the legislature been a major tax battleground.

The Republican-controlled legislature on deck for the 1951 session has been skittish about new levies ever since Gov. John S. Fine recommended the one half of one per cent income tax. Along with a one per cent boost in the four per cent corporate net income tax, it is designed at raising 163 million dollars in new revenue during the biennium opening June 1. The overall biennial budget embraces $1,200,000,000.

Doctors Are Hopeful Mrs. Jimmy Stewart On Road To Recovery

HOLLYWOOD, May 14.—(INS)—Doctors were hopeful today that Mrs. Jimmy Stewart, wife of the film star, is well on the road to recovery following two operations since the birth of twin girls a week ago.

Mrs. Stewart, the former Gloria Hatrick McLean, was reported in serious condition but in no immediate danger.

The actor maintained a vigil at Mrs. Stewart's bedside. He was joined Saturday night by her mother, Mrs. Jessie Hatrick, and a sister, Mrs. Greg Draddy, who flew from New York.

Following birth of the twins by Caesarian section, Mrs. Stewart underwent an operation last Friday. A second operation, one lasting nearly three hours, was performed late Saturday night.

Stewart had planned to leave for Washington tomorrow for location scenes for a new film. The star, however, said he would not leave his wife's bedside until doctors assure him that she is entirely out of danger.

Gen. Eichelberger Against Bombing Manchurian Bases

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(INS)—Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger former 8th Army commander, said last night that Chinese Communist troops cannot "stand up indefinitely" against present losses in Korea and advised against bombing Manchurian bases for the time being.

Eichelberger, who served under Gen. MacArthur during World War II, opposed bombing of Chinese supply points beyond the Yalu river because "Russia has vital interests in Manchuria." He said it might disturb the advantageous balance of power held by the U. S. Air Force in Korea at present.

Bombing beyond the Yalu was one of the possible courses of action outlined by MacArthur to hasten victory in Korea.

Eichelberger pointed out that the Communists have been under constant attack by planes, tanks and artillery, that they have no earial observation and are unable to strafe United Nations troops.

It's a thousand years since the heavy snow, and longer than it seems, those days and nights when the roads were clogged are remembered but only like dreams. And those frigid mornings when mercury was down underneath the line have passed from memory, or nearly so, for it's May and the weather is fine. The morning songs of the cardinals have replaced the whine of the storm, and out in the yard where the drifts were thick it's balmy and sunny and warm. And all of King Winter's chilly tricks are forgiven, now that it's May, and the earth is greening with early crops; it's 75 today.

Woman's Death Being Probed

County Coroner Charles E. Allen and city police are investigating finding of the dead body of Mrs. Jessie Nash, 47, at her home at 216 Mahoning avenue, about noon today.

Indications, the officials said, were that Mrs. Nash had been beaten, but the cause of death had not been determined. An autopsy will be ordered by the coroner, he announced.

Discovery of the body was made when a telephone message was received by Mrs. Betty May, daughter, rear of 903 Moravia street, telling her that her mother had been beaten.

Mrs. May, with her husband, went to the Mahoning avenue home to investigate and found Mrs. Nash dead. According to the officials, the woman had been dead for several hours.

Two persons, a man and a woman, were taken to police headquarters for questioning in an effort to get at the cause of the woman's death. One of these persons was said to have had an argument with Mrs. Nash yesterday.

Others in the party, missed them, and retraced their flight. They discovered the wrecked plane and flew to the airport, where the accident was reported. A Red Cross first aid group, immediately went to the scene and administered first aid treatment, after which the injured were brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital, being admitted for treatment at 5 p. m.

Their condition today was reported as satisfactory.

Occupants of the plane were most fortunate that the plane escaped striking a high-voltage line of the Pennsylvania Power Company, which was just a few feet above the cable on the same poles. Over 5,000 volts are carried on the line, it is stated, and they might have been electrocuted had the plane contacted the high-voltage wires.

Youth And Girl Die From Carbon Monoxide Fumes

PITTSBURGH, May 14.—(INS)—A young man and his "date" died from inhaling carbon monoxide fumes in a parked automobile near Pittsburgh early today after a day-long outing.

Louise Sanner, 16, of Jefferson township, and Harry Snow, 21, of Venetia, Pa., were found dead by the girl's mother, Mrs. Violet Sanner.

The mother went to investigate after noticing her daughter had not come into the house some time after the car pulled to a stop in front of the home.

A deputy coroner said Snow had backed the car against a pile of coal, blocking the exhaust pipe and forcing fumes back into the car.

Snow and Miss Sanner had attended a baseball doubleheader, eaten dinner and gone for a drive with another couple prior to the tragedy.

rector of Trinity church, will speak on "Liturgical Music." He will be assisted in the service by Rev. Fr. Addison K. Groff, curate of Trinity church; Rev. Fr. Reed, Grove City, Pa., Rev. Fr. S. Kolcun and Rev. Fr. Edward Kuzminski, both of this city.

Entirely Own Works

Organists and choir of New Castle have been playing Mr. Edmundson's music for years, but this is the first time in this city that a program has been devoted entirely to his works. Such an honor is long overdue Mr. Edmundson.

Twenty years ago the University of Florida presented a concert of Edmundson music, including both organ and choral compositions. A few years ago Duke university similarly honored him. The National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., held a "Garth Edmundson Day," using his compositions at all services. This April the Trinity Methodist church, of Youngstown, O., presented a concert of his works.

Mr. Edmundson's compositions rank the most frequently performed among Americans. He also is represented in a recent anthology of organ music, edited by David McK. Williams, of St. Bartholomew's church, New York City. The collection includes works of contemporary American and European composers.

Aged Widow Slain; Youth Under Arrest

HAMILTON, N. Y., May 14.—(INS)—State police today awaited an autopsy report on an 81-year-old widow allegedly slain by a 16-year-old boy in her little farm home near Hamilton, N. Y.

The autopsy was ordered to determine whether the woman, Mrs. Jennie Neff, was criminally assaulted before she died of head wounds.

Police said the youth, Arthur Hill, is being held on a first degree murder charge. He allegedly told authorities that he had robbed Mrs. Neff of two dollars and then attacked her with a claw hammer last Thursday.

Police officers said the boy told them he used to live near the Neff home.

U.N. PLANES ATTEMPT TO SMASH BUILDUP

the enemy's chief buildup in mid-Korea between Chunchon and Huichon.

Fly 449 Sorties

They flew 449 sorties and among their preliminary damage claims was the destruction of four locomotives and 129 rail cars as well as the killing or wounding of 250 Reds during the morning alone.

The fresh blows covered all sectors and rear communications. They followed a 900-sortie sky assault Sunday.

On the ground, Monday passed with "little or no" enemy contact in all sectors after South Korean troops on the east coastal flank of the trans-peninsular front were halted and pushed back by counter-attacking North Koreans.

The U.S. Eighth Army's Monday night communique, announcing the virtual lack of encounters with the invaders, said UN tank-infantry patrols spent the day "probing deep into enemy territory."

Above the no man's land across which these patrols thrust, the bulletin said, Allied airmen spotted new enemy troop movements southward from the reservoir city of Hwachon to the central front sector around Chunchon.

625,600 Poised Ready

A high source at Eighth Army headquarters was quoted in a Monday evening field dispatch as estimating that some 625,000 Chinese Red troops were poised for a "second round" spring push in the central and west sectors.

The officer said a Chinese Red Army corps totaling 350,000 troops has been massed and is ready to resume the offensive at any time.

A Chinese striking force of the same size, he said, has been withdrawn into the immediate rear where it is expected to act as a reserve for the fresh corps assembled in the forward areas at springboard positions.

This reserve is the force which carried out the "first round" of the enemy's spring offensive late last month and suffered an estimated 75,000 casualties before the drive was stopped short of Seoul and other prime objectives.

Some Allied field officers said the Reds may jump off on their new push Thursday night in order to take advantage of a full moon.

The fresh Communist hordes were reported to have brought tanks and artillery with them as they massed, mainly in the central and west sectors.

Amid a tense lull, the Allied forces got themselves set behind a bolstered chain of ridge positions for the anticipated big battle.

Numerous residents seem to be having trouble with rabbits eating their tender young flowers just as they are ready to be on their best show of the season. One resident has discovered that the placing of some mothballs along the flower beds tends to discourage the cottontails, as they dislike the odor very much.

Many of the local churches are already arranging for supply pastors during a portion of the coming summer months as local pastors get ready for long long jaunts to distant points, away from their pastoral duties. In some cases former pastors will return to fill the pulpits, while in other instances, student pastors will minister to the congregations.

STATE SENATE NEAR DECISION ON TAX

ing ahead to the big political battles of 1952, are not united in their stand on the new tax program although the administration won a lacklustre victory in the house by ramming the income proposal through on the rarely-invoked second roll call.

Hard Core of Resistance

The hard core of resistance to the tax has been shaped in the 50-member senate by Fine's break with two of the men who supported his candidacy in 1950—Montgomery county chairman Fred C. Peters and Delaware county boss John J. McClure.

The opposition there, which includes the 20-member Democratic contingent, is led by Republican senators G. Robert Watkins, a McClure follower, and Henry J. Propert, a Peters aide.

If the known opponents can pick up four more votes, the income tax can be stymied. If it passes, it will have to be returned to the house for concurrence in amendments and probably will end up in a conference committee where differences can be resolved.

Reports that defeat of the income tax would open the door for Fine to propose a sales tax are discounted. One, because Fine is opposed to such a levy and, two, there is no more enthusiasm for a sales tax than there is for the income proposal.

If the income tax is passed, it will break the log jam on the administration's entire finance program plus all the legislation of importance which has been held up by the budget wrangle.

BELATED BAN ON RUBBER

Action by the Labor government in banning all British rubber exports to Communist China for the rest of the year comes as a welcome, if dreadfully belated, move.

It was taken only after former Prime Minister Winston Churchill had castigated the government for failing to embargo such shipments and had charged that British appeasement in the Far East is threatening to "ruin the whole free world." Prior to the action, also, Sir Hartley Shawcross, president of the Board of Trade, had acknowledged that $357,000,000 worth of goods had been sent by Britain to Red China since the war in Korea began.

Continued delivery of war-essential materials to the Red regime that is fighting the United Nations forces in Korea is indefensible. But the British have gone right on trading with the Reds, using the port of Hong Kong as the main shipment point. That is not just appeasement; it is actively supporting our enemies.

More yet remains to be done to seal off Red China from Allied help, suggests the Philadelphia Inquirer. The newly imposed British rubber embargo must be enforced and it should be expanded to embrace all goods, not merely rubber. Efforts must be taken to prevent violation of the ban by means of transhipment to non-British ports prior to delivery to Red China. And other nations should be prevailed to join in a general embargo.

Our fighting forces in Korea have enough to contend with without having the enemy armed and supplied by our Allies.

RUSSIA DELAYING TREATY WITH JAPAN

Russia, which entered the war in the Pacific in its last waning moments, wants to be in on the ground floor of any treaty that might be made with Japan.

The Moscow government has refused to enter into separate negotiations with the United States on terms of a Japanese treaty, but insists that the matter be discussed at a council of foreign ministers.

According to Russia's demands, the council would include representatives of Russia, Britain, the United States and Red China.

Other provisions as to the sort of treaty Russia would approve include withdrawal of all occupation troops within one year after the signing of the treaty, the transfer of Formosa and the Pescadores in the Straits of Formosa to Red China, and assurance that the Ryukyu and Bonin Islands would remain under Japanese rule and not be placed under a United States trusteeship.

In short, Russia seems to be doing the best possible job of delaying a treaty with Japan. The Russian leaders are taking the position of the man who hates railroads and owns land over which they must build track. He thinks that the railroads must have his land so he makes the price so high that if they pay it they will not have enough money to buy the track and equipment.

Russia would be glad to agree to the signing of a Japanese peace treaty, but apparently only on terms so damaging to the United States that it would make the entire war we fought in the Pacific a hollow mockery.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE

It is essential for every American who wants to be a useful citizen to understand the purpose and nature of his government. Unlike people in most foreign lands, he has something to say about who shall direct the affairs of the country as well as locally. If he knows how the management operates, he is better prepared to protect his own interests so far as they may be affected by government regulations.

The 4-H Club organization—national and state—is supplying the means whereby its members can acquire the fundamentals of this knowledge. The parent body has established a week's camp in Washington for representatives of local groups throughout the country. Delegates chosen are those who show outstanding ability in leadership and community service in relation to their work. These are young people, banded together in clubs, who live in agricultural areas.

Of course, the entire membership cannot be sent to Washington. Yet those who attend the camp will be in a position to disseminate to their club associates at home the things they will have learned, thereby benefiting the whole organization. While in Washington the delegates will meet and talk with men and women concerned with public affairs and can see the national government in action.

WORLD WAR III FOR RUSSIA?

A former Hungarian army officer, who was a World War II prisoner of the Russians at Vladivostok, says there are sound military reasons to discourage the Soviets from enlarging the Korean conflict into World War III.

The officer, now in the United States and reluctant to be identified because of relatives in Hungary, claims the Allies have enough air, land and sea power near Vladivostok to defeat the Russians there in a matter of months.

He also points out that Russian submarine bases for the Pacific are especially vulnerable because they are virtually isolated from industrial Russia and the center of the Soviet manpower potential.

With the stakes high in Europe, he adds, Russia cannot spare sufficient military personnel to hold these vital bases against certain Allied air devastation and possible occupation by ground troops. Their loss would virtually guarantee a Soviet defeat in the Far East, the officer says.

Latin America Upheaval

Another off-again on-again revolution and change of power has taken place in Latin America and has served—in its most important aspect—to prove that the United States is far from completely dependent upon its Monroe Doctrine neighbors.

The state department in Washington felt well qualified to remain aloof from the 48-hour period of violence and bloodshed which followed the attempts of former President Arnulfo Arias to reassume the dictatorship powers he enjoyed in 1941.

It made not the slightest attempt to intervene with Arias' chief political opponent, national Police Chief Jose Antonio Remon, forced the issue by pitting his forces against those of the government in power.

The explanation in all probabilities lies in the fact that Panama is a republic in a state of vacuum.

Depends On U. S.

It depends entirely for its prosperity, or rather its mere sustenance upon monetary funds from the United States for upkeep of the Panama canal.

These grants are going forward, and will continue to do so, but there is a diminishing need for subsidies in the Panamanian republic itself as other United States air and naval bases are built up in surrounding areas.

The situation in the republic of Panama, stemming from the personal rivalry between Arias and Remon, has been described as an "unhappy mess".

Its inception lies in the unilateral action taken by the Panama government immediately after the end of the second world war in throwing the United States bodily out of the isthmus—by the simple expedient of closing down the U. S. air force bases which at the time were essential to western hemsiphere defense.

Washington has made it clear that while the Panama canal is still of the most urgent importance, the republic that touches upon it is of far less urgency. The air force has better establishments well within reach of the Canal Zone protection and defense, with the result that political upsets, even while they invoke bloody casualties, can be taken in stride.

Seen As Test Case

The Panama uprising, incidentally, presents itself as something of a test case in the present Latin American experiment of attempting to bring back into power ruling presidents who have been discredited in years past.

Brazil has done this in the case of Getulio Vargas, a former dictator now restored to power after the expired term of Eurico Gaspar Dutra, and there have been no unfavorable results.

Bolivia has been balloting in a presidential election and the results thus far have gone heavily in favor of Victor Paz Estensoro, once denounced as a nazi sympathizer and now an exile in the Argentine capital of Buenos Aires.

The crux of the situation in Panama lies embedded in the claim of Arias that he felt it necessary to emerge again as a dictator in order to liquidate what he termed "international communism".

On this mode of excuse for inducing party and public violence, there were skeptics who made appearance without delay.

Diplomatic observers in Washington lost no time in pointing out that conditions prevailing in the republic of Panama were such as to make things ripe for local communist opportunism; they were not so convinced as was Arias himself that the "avant garde" of the Kremlin had taken up stations on Gatun Locks.

President Carlo Prio Socarras, in an interview with International News Service in his Cuban capital of Havana only a few weeks ago pointed out that adventurous Latin American politicians might well take advantage of the communist-versus-democracy crisis to further their own aims if possible.

Arias seems to have been the first to take the gamble he predicted.

Just Folks

TWO TOASTS

MOTHER TO DAUGHTER

As my mother prayed for me,
So for you I learned to pray
That you'd ever grateful be
For God's blessings day by day.
May you touch with grace the years;
Bravely bear what hurts you must,
And should come the time for tears,
Never cease in God to trust.
May you be as proud as I
Of a daughter, by and by.

DAUGHTER TO MOTHER

As you taught me how to pray
When you held me on your knee,
So I ask from day to day
To deserve your love for me.
For your never ending care;
For the patience you have shown:
For your willingness to share
Every burden I have known,
Thank you, mother, now, I say,
But there's something more. I pray
Should a daughter come to me,
That my love like yours will be.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CORRECTING POOR ENUNCIATION

One evening after school a little girl was saying over and over for fun, "Liza gramma alry mindus, we ka-make a Liza grand." She said she had learned it at school. No doubt she gave it as she thought she heard it, though the original was, "Lives of great men all remind us we can make our lives sublime."

It's not strange that a certain little girl had supposed for a number of years that she heard and sang at church about "the cross-eyed bear," or that the farm boy reported at home that the sermon was about "the angel that came down from heaven, took a horse by the tail and jerked him out of the halter." Often what our children hear us say is very different from what we suppose we say. Our own careless and indistinct enunciation plus the child's imagination can make the difference.

Parents and Teachers

It would be shockingly enlightening for us parents and teachers to hear, every now and then, a recording of our utterances made when we hadn't known it was being made. We then might feel strongly the need of making ourselves speak more distinctly, especially in the presence of our children.

Now our children in the elementary grades hear very indistinct speech from other children there. Some of this indistinctness results from poor enunciation they hear by adults. There is also another and much more potent cause for the indistinct speech children hear from other children and use themselves — an emotional cause.

In High School

The average child, even in high school, when speaking in the classroom, does not speak very distinctly. He often mumbles, but the teacher can usually guess what he is saying. The reason he mumbles is that he is beset with self-consciousness. This fear hampers his breathing and impairs the coordination of his whole speech mechanism.

When you are introduced to several persons, one right after the other, the person naming them may not speak very distinctly and you may be enough disturbed emotionally so as not to get every sound clearly. Suppose you sat at a banquet or luncheon table and each person at the table introduced himself. At best you might not clearly hear the names of half of them. Most of them may have been so careless or self-conscious as merely to mumble their names.

Can't we parents and teachers do something about this problem? Yes, we can, by making ourselves speak more distinctly, and by creating an atmosphere at home and at school of greater comfortableness for the child of any age, so he will naturally feel more at ease and therefore breathe and speak more distinctly. What an opportunity we have for cultivating more likable personalities in ourselves and our children.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

U.S. Carrying Big Burden

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Senate hearings into the Truman-MacArthur controversy are touching on the issue that carries perhaps the greatest emotional charge both in congress and the country. That is the high percentage of the burden of the Korean war carried by the United States.

This gets down to the roll of American casualties, to the cost of war in materials and money, which in turn means higher taxes, to the independence of American action in a command that includes the troops of 14 nations. Thus it is highly exploitable and the Republicans show every sign of exploiting it with help from General MacArthur.

Senator Wiley of Wisconsin picked up the figure of 350,000 Americans involved in the Korean war and suggested that they were subject to a foreign command. General Marshall replied that the situation in Korea was no different from that in Europe when General Eisenhower was supreme commander of the allied forces. The military censor deleted Marshall's testimony about the number of Americans and the number of other fighting men involved in the Korean conflict.

Much Too Large

Information I have obtained indicates the 350,000 figure is much too large. The correct figure is nearer 250,000 and that includes not only American ground forces but sea and air as well. The 350,000 figure was apparently an estimate of U. S. ground forces combined with South Korean ground forces.

An estimate of the number of fighting men from the other 13 nations supply troops is 50,000, and this would also include sea and air as well as ground. The ratio is therefore approximately five to one—five American fighting men for every one contributed by Britain, France, Turkey, Canada and so on. And, as before, this is exclusive of South Koreans.

Within a day or two 6,000 Canadian soldiers will arrive in Korea after a period of intensive training at Fort Lewis, Wash. This infantry brigade group will join other Canadians, British and Australian forces to form a commonwealth division. With all the special services attached to it, it will be an outsize unit fully as large as the U. S. Marine divisions that have been in Korea.

Canada's total on the ground will be about 7,500. Britain has about 12,000 ground troops and 8,000 in the naval force. Canada has three destroyers and an air transport squadron involved.

Apart from the Canadians soon to go into the line, no other addition from the 13 U. N. powers supporting the United States is in sight. This is the hard fact that is going to have an important bearing on public opinion in this country if the war goes on into the early fall with another winter campaign in prospect.

Likely To Happen

Observers who can see public opinion boiling up on this issue believe one of two things is likely to happen. Pressure for the MacArthur policy, which seems to many to offer a quick and simple end of the war, will become much greater. If this pressure is resisted by the administration, then in both congress and the country support for the U. N. war in Korea will fall away to such a point that it might be necessary to withdraw American forces from the Korean peninsula. The growing American resentment ignores one consideration. That is the contribution made by other U. N. nations toward holding the line against communism elsewhere in Asia.

The French have about 150,000 of their best troops in Indo-China where the struggle against communist-led guerrillas brought a high rate of casualties. The United States is furnishing military aid, including guns, tanks and so far about 100 planes. An American military mission of 73 men is in Indo-China.

The British have about 17,000 British soldiers in Malaya, plus 12,00 Gurkhas from India and four Malayan battalions equipped and trained by the British. They have been engaged in a fierce struggle to save the rubber plantations from guerrilla action. Since a part of Malaya's rubber has gone to Russia and Red China, some Americans would not count this last much of a contribution. About 12,000 British troops are stationed in Hong Kong.

It may be that against the emotional tide facts count for little. But they are facts, and in the balance sheet drawn by our U. N. allies they weigh heavily.

When the South Korean sixth division fled in virtual rout before the latest communist offensive recently, threatening the position of two U. S. divisions on the flanks, three British battalions scattered over a 10-mile front saved the day. One of these, the Gloucestershire, lost all but 45 of its 600 men. We did not read much about that in our newspapers. But you can be sure the British public was made aware of the heroism and stamina of that force.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

Mr. Truman feels we are not paying enough attention to his emergencies and we have again been warned against relaxing.

After 18 years of national emergencies it may be that we have become immune to them and my barber says if Mr. Truman wants to shake us up he might try declaring "a state of normalcy".

This would mean a few changes in government . . . setting up a bureau of decontrol, appointment of a secretary of peace, substitution of an outgo tax department for the present income tax department with annual checks to taxpayers.

It may sound foolish, but this is no road to Utopia we've been on and also it's very loneome.

General Marshall testified we had to fight a "prudent war" in Korea or lose our allies . . shucks we haven't found enough of them in Korea to lose.

How you fight a "prudent war" is not quite clear, but it sounds like a military-political policy right out of the old rhyme "Hang Your Clothes On a Hickory Limb But Don't Go Near the Water."

They Say

CHICAGO—Admiral W. H. P. Blandy—"It is absurd to believe that anything more we can do in Asia or Korea will influence the Russians toward war."

LONDON — Premier Sophocles Venizelos of Greece—"I would like to see some sort of Mediterranean pact or other regional grouping of the Atlantic pact which we could join."

HOT SPRINGS, Va.—Defense Mobilizer Wilson—"During 1953 we can begin to look for a relaxation of the present irksome resrictions."

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — Everett Amaral, forced into lovemaking at the point of a knife — "It's mighty funny to everyone else, but it was a terrible experience to me."

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

In order to sustain the thinking that is prevalent in this community . . . Edward Book . . . choral director of the Senior High School will present the various choral groups in a spring concert . . . to take place Tuesday evening in the high school . . . time, 8:15.

The prevalent thinking is that New Castle has produced and is continuing to produce great voices and great musicians. There is talent here and that is what we want you to hear Tuedsay evening. Singers like Alberta Scriven, mezzo soprano; Madelon Reinhard, contralto; and Floyd Cotton, baritone will give your spirit a big lift.

The piano will not be forgotten in this colorful spring concert . . . Geraldine Prescaro and Larry Haims will thrill you with their suberb piano solos . . . and these two we want you to hear. There's a future for these young people in music circles.

A male quartet always makes the spine tingle . . . and yours will too when you hear Bruce Billman, Bruce Galbreath, Ed McClelland, and Tom Spence get together for some well-known songs . . . later in the program these men will be joined by the girls mentioned above and Gail Brown and Lois Simon for some unusual arrangements that will give you a big boost.

Tomorrow evening's presentation of good choral and piano music will prove to you that the modern generation has great talent . . . Mr. Book, director, can well be proud of his students . . . and they are proud of him, too, if we might say so at this time.

* * *

During the concert . . . we would much rather say . . . presentation . . . a different arrangement for the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" will be sung . . . but the big thrill comes when you hear the final number, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." We've had a bit of a preview during the year and know that you won't be disappointed with the singing of the New Castle Senior High Choral group.

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

Politics And Generals

WASHINGTON, May 14.

Inevitably, the tremendous favoring popular sentiment aroused by General MacArthur's return, his speeches and his 25 hours of testimony before the two Senate committees created widespread talk of him for the presidency. This has been stimulated by his announced intention to visit a good many other cities further to express his views. Clubs have been formed to promote his Republican nomination; a large number of persons are for him. Probably if a vote were taken now he would be overwhelmingly elected. On the other hand, among Democratic politicians who fully appreciate the extremely bleak prospect their party faces next year, there is growing talk concerning a "draft" of General Eisenhower.

—o—

In all this there is more emotion than sense and some clear thinking seems called for. In the first place, two things appear to nullify the MacArthur idea. One, of course, is his own flat statement that he definitely has no political ambition and intends to keep out of politics. The other, of course, is his age. General MacArthur was 71 years old on January 26 last. If he were elected President next year he would be nearly 73 before he took the oath of office and close to 77 before the end of his term. These facts will not stop the boosting of his friends but they should. No man of that age has ever been elected to the presidency. Perfect as now seems his physical condition, he is too old for a President. It ought to be an insuperable barrier.

—o—

As to the General's statement that he has no desire for the presidency and no intention to try for it (which is the only interpretation that can be put on his words), he is certainly entitled to credit for as complete sincerity as was General Marshall, when three years ago he said: "I am not available—and will not be available—for any elective office." General Marshall meant that fully when he said it. There is no reason to believe that General MacArthur does not mean what he said just as fully. To doubt it is not only to reflect upon the judgement and good sense of the man but upon his integrity.

—o—

For it is still true that no man can be drafted for President without an acquiescence that amounts to connivance. And only the most prejudiced question the MacArthur sincerity. The impressive reply of General Marshall, the speech of the President, the other anti-MacArthur testimony or the vicious attacks now being made on him by Administration propagandists are not apt greatly to diminish the high esteem in which he is held by the people in all sections and both parties. But at his age, and after what he has said, he is extremely unlikely to destroy so fine a position by a plunge into politics.

—o—

As to General Eisenhower, his age—60—is certainly no bar and he might be "drafted" by the Republicans with a minimum of acquiescence and connivance. Because theirs is the party to which he belongs. But drafting him for the Democratic nomination would require a degree of active acquiescence and connivance that would hardly be decent. Those who know him best know General Eisenhower is not a Democrat and never has been. In particular, he is not a New Deal nor a Fair Deal Democrat. Neither the Roosevelt nor the Truman domestic policies appeal to him. And the idea of an administration subservient to the labor bosses, as theirs have been, revolts him. Leaving out altogether the prospect that the military situation in 1952 may make it essential for him to stay at the head of our armed forces in Europe, other circumstances make the suggested Democratic "draft" seem ridiculous. The Democrats would have to repudiate their domestic record of nineteen years to do it. At least that is the way General Eisenhower's intimate friends feel about it.

—o—

As a matter of fact, it does seem rather appalling that the country should be so destitute of civilian material that two army generals must be nominated for our highest civilian office. It is not likely to come to that, and it would be pretty bad for the national interests if it did. Despite the great pro-MacArthur sentiment it is still more likely the Republicans will nominate Eisenhower in 1952. Already a number of the most influential party leaders have declared for him—Dewey of New York, Duff, of Pennsylvania; Stassen, of Minnesota; Warren, of California. This, with no effort on his part, insures nearly one third of the convention.

—o—

If military matters do not eliminate him—as they easily may—General Eisenhower can get that nomination if he wants it. Most of those who know him think he wants it. As for the Democrats, they will, of course, nominate a civilian. Who the civilian will be is extremely uncertain. The thing about which there seems most certainty is that he will not be Mr. Truman. The reasons for this feeling will be presented in a later column.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

"A world teacher of the caliber of Jesus, Mohammed or Buddha will arise soon to save mankind from devils incarnate like the atom and hydrogen bombs, say India's holy men."

Thus read a dispatch from New Delhi, India, where hundreds of "holy men" were gathered on the banks of the Jumna River for their annual conference.

According to a consensus of the holy men, the "terror and confusion created under the shadow of these powers of destruction are a necessary prelude to the emergence of a divine saviour in human form."

India is a country of wishful thinking.

It is a country that confuses dreams with realities.

The coming of another Christ or Mohammed or Buddha may be a wonderful ideal. So is the coming of eternal peace.

But present-day conditions are not a "necessary prelude" to the emergence of a new divine saviour.

And even if that new saviour should emerge—what then?

The Indian holy men and all those everywhere who are awaiting a new saviour forget that the original saviour is still very much alive. He is still very much among us.

But in the mad rush of events we fail to recognize Him.

Oh yes, we give Him lip service.

We have built thousands of churches to Him. We go to these churches on Sundays and Holidays and loudly proclaim our devotion to Him.

But lip service is not heart service.

Talking about something and LIVING that something are two different functions.

What does Christ mean?

What did Jesus teach and preach?

Peace. Brotherly love. Honesty. Decency. Humility. Simplicity. Modesty. Abstinence.

All these qualities and many more are put down for us to read and to follow in that eternally valid book, the BIBLE.

Why do we need a NEW savior?

What could He do that Christ did not TRY to do?

What new preachments, what better rules for living could a new saviour give us?

Unfortunately Man is still living by the SWORD rather than by the WORD.

All honor to General MacArthur and the other great warrior heroes.

Millions turned out to do them homage. Statues of fighting men are erected all over the world.

How many would turn out to honor that NEW saviour if he came to us today?

If he DID come, he would be crucified again.

Not, perhaps, on the cross with a crown of thorns.

But crucified in action and in deed, in negligence of his words and in disobedience of his teachings.

The NEW saviour is here NOW—He has been here for 1951 years. He is the TRUTH—and the TRUTH can never grow old.

MILDNESS TESTS HAVE SMOKED OUT THE TRUTH

Pick the Star of the 1951 Season

BOB LEMON won 20 games or more in each of the last 3 seasons and should repeat. Bob is a repeat customer with Camels! "They're great tasting and get along fine with my throat."

ANDY SEMINICK'S big bat helped the Phils win last year's pennant! The 30-day Camel test helped Andy decide on Camels. He says, "Camels taste just right and they smoke cool and mild."

CARL FURILLO has speed, a great arm and power at the plate. Could you want more? And Camels have just what Carl wants in a cigarette: "They've got a swell flavor and they're mild!"

"PREACHER" ROE looks good for another great season. "The Preach" says Camels are great any season. "I tried a lot of brands and Camels came out my choice. They're for me!"

VIC RASCHI is a pitcher you always expect top performance from. Vic gets top "performance" from Camels. Vic says, "You can't beat Camel's flavor—and Camels agree with my throat!"

JIM KONSTANTY was 1950's most sensational pitcher, the envy of every manager in baseball. Jim says, "With me, mildness is a must. Camels have it—and they have grand flavor, too!"

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Published Figures Show CAMEL Leads by Still More Billions!

IN THE PAST two years, the smokers of America have made many cigarette tests—to find out the truth about "mildness." They've made sniff tests... puff tests... and the thorough, sensible test—the 30-day Camel mildness test. They've seriously tried to find out how mild a cigarette can be. And they've gotten their answer!

In these same two years, according to latest published figures, Camel has increased its lead as America's most popular cigarette by many billions of cigarettes a year! These figures show Camel with its biggest lead in 25 years of cigarette history!

More people have found what they want in Camels than in any other cigarette — mildness, pack after pack... and rich, full flavor, week after week after week. No other cigarette has Camel's fine flavor, the flavor of costly tobaccos properly aged and expertly blended!

And no other cigarette offers this conclusive proof of mildness—proof based not on a sniff or a puff, but on steady smoking:

In a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of people who smoked only Camels for 30 days, noted throat specialists reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Doctors in every branch of medicine were asked...
"What cigarette do you smoke, Doctor?" Again that question has been asked of doctors all over the country. Again the brand named most was Camel! According to this nationwide survey:
More doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Your proving ground for a cigarette
Cigarette smoking is something you enjoy many times a day and week after week. So it makes sense to test a cigarette on that basis.
Smoke only Camels for 30 days — and let your "T-Zone" tell you how mild a cigarette can be. That's T for Throat and T for Taste—your proving ground for a cigarette.
You'll see how mild Camels are, how well they get along with your throat as a steady smoke. You'll enjoy Camel's rich, full flavor. You'll see why Camel is America's most popular cigarette!

How thorough can a cigarette mildness test be?
The most complete, most convincing test of cigarette mildness ever made was conducted in conjunction with noted throat specialists. Hundreds of men and women smoked Camels exclusively for 30 days. Each week, the specialists examined their throats. They made 2,470 careful examinations and then reported— NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS!

America's Most Popular Cigarette...by Billions! CAMEL

Steve Nelson And Two Members Of Family Are Hurt

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—(INS)—Steve Nelson, 48-year-old western Pennsylvania communist leader, and two members of his family were in "fair condition" today at Woman's College hospital in Philadelphia. The communist leader is currently a defendant at Pittsburgh on charges of violating Pennsylvania's anti-sedition law.

New Record Made In Turnpike Travel

HARRISBURG, May 14.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania turnpike commission reported today that the 100-mile eastern extension has brought traffic on the super-toll road to an all-time high level.

"The month of March, 1951, surpassed all previous monthly Evans.

"Figures show that a total of 497,545 fare-paying vehicles used the turnpike system, compared to 244,249 for the same month a year ago," he revealed. "Revenues in March of this year totaled $1,010,765, representing a gain of 73 per cent over the $581,928 of last March."

This increase, he said, was "due substantially" to the Middlesex-King of Prussia extension. The 161-mile Middlesex-Irwin link was opened 11 years ago.

Smaller Wheat Harvest In State Forecast For Year

HARRISBURG, May 14.—(INS)—Pennsylvania farmers face their smallest wheat harvest since 1943.

State Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst said today that wheat fields on state farms failed to make a sufficient comeback during April's cool and wet weather to forestall a drop of half a bushel in the yield per acre.

Spring plowing, seeding and planting for other crops also are slightly behind last year, he added.

Horst explained that 21 bushels average yield per acre indicated May 1 leads crop observers to forecast 17,766,000 bushels, a drop of 110,000 from the April 1 forecast.

Plowing generally is on a par with 1950.

Planting is 41 per cent completed, Horst said, a slight improvement over last year but a bit under average.

The federal-state crop reporting service noted that hay crops are six per cent better on May 1 this year than a year ago, while a rating of fair to good is given for the condition of winter wheat.

Horst meanwhile reported production of 75,000 gallons of maple sirup and 17,000 pounds of maple sugar in Pennsylvania this spring.

A poor season and shortage of labor and fuel are blamed for the decline of 20,000 gallons from last year's sirup production and the 9,000 drop from the 1950 sugar output.

Lose Weight By Talking About It

CINCINNATI, O., May 14.—(INS)—A Massachusetts physician has advised fat women—and men—they can lose weight by talking about it.

Dr. Stanley S. Kanter said the "talking" method of losing weight worked on a test control group of 21 overweight women treated in "group psychotherapy for obesity."

He described their treatment as one of "ventilating their experiences" in trying to drop poundage and said the women were regarded as grown-ups with a tough problem, not as persons lacking will-power.

Dr. Kanter told the American Psychiatric Association meeting in Cincinnati that the patients found the method was painless and probably enjoyed it.

HOME WEDDING

"My daughter will soon marry at home. How should we decorate the room wherein the ceremony will take palce and how should the processional be carried out?"

Answer: At one end of your living room where the ceremony will occur, place an oblong table to be used as an improvised altar. On the table, set a white cloth made of linen or a lace runner and at each end put tall white candles, flanking a low centerpiece of flowers. In front of this improvised altar, place either a pre dieu (if you have one) or instead, a white satin pillow on which the bridal couple may kneel side by side. Choose the most attractive spot in the room for your altar and behind it arrange floral decorations such as palms, evergreen, huge sprays of dogwood, etc., bearing in mind that this will be the focal point of interest in the room. If expense is no object, you may rent from a florist small posts decorated with greens and flowers to be used to mark an aisle from the stairway to the place of the ceremony—the path to be followed by the bridal party.

The guests should arrive about 15 or 20 minutes before the time appointed for the ceremony. They should, on arrival, be greeted by the parents of the bride and groom who should stand near the living room door. When everything is ready for the ceremony, one usher (if there are any) should escort the bride's and another usher should escort the bridegroom's mother to their places in the front line of guests (the bride's mother on the left and the bridegroom's on the right as usual). The ushers should then proceed to take their places in the bridal party forming in the upstairs hall.

The clergyman, the bridegroom and the best man enter together from a door, preferably near the end of the room. The bridegroom and the best man should wait at the improvised altar for the bride to come in. The ushers go upstairs where the bridal party waits to start the processional which forms in the upstairs hall.

At the first sound of the wedding march, the ushers walking two by two, come down the stairs; next come the bridesmaids (two by two); then the maid of honor (alone); last, the bride on the right arm of her father.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14. — (INS) — Regional Price Director Victor E. Moore vill oppose any increase in milk prices in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission has ordered a one-cent-a quart boost effective July 1 in Pittsburgh, while a similar rise has been proposed for Philadelphia on the same date.

"I represent the consumer," Moore said. "The regulations require that evidence justifying increases be presented to OPS, and none has been presented."

The regional OPS head added that his agency will have a lawyer present at all future milk commission hearings, "protecting the consumer's interest in every case."

Council To Ask Non-Closing Of Run Near School

After having been informed school authorities plan to close a run in the rear of George Washington Junior High School. Mayor Haven suggested council request the school board to prevent it, because of flood conditions during storms. Council accepted the suggestion.

Relative to other water nuisances, Solicitor Robert White said he would visit the Euclid and Summer Avenue districts and see what legally can be done.

The city cannot enter upon and make improvements on private property, hence White's proposed trip to the district where water following every storm fails to flow through pipes and inundates private property.

Ask For Sewer In Frank Avenue

Petition presented to council at its meeting in city hall Monday asked the city to install a sanitary sewer in Frank Avenue between East Washington street, and 200 feet west of Huron Avenue. Mayor Haven suggested the petition be referred to E. Gene Schweinsberg, director and Engineer John Street for investigation. On motion of Councilman Davis this was done.

WOULD PURCHASE LAND

Attorney Michael Matheny, representing Smith Dry Cleaners, asked council to sell to them a small plot in the rear of their South street plant. The company said the parcel is small in view of the construction of the new bridge, it might be procured by someone who would operate small concession which would interfer with the dry cleaning plant's garage. It may be auctioned off, according to council.

School Heads Attend Zelienople Meeting

Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of city schools, Roy F. Conway, superintendent of county schools, Irwin W. Stunkard, assistant county superintendent, and G. W. Johnston, supervising principal of Shenango township schools, attended a meeting of district superintendents and principals at Zelienople Friday.

Mark Funk, of Latrobe, president of the WPIAL, conducted a question and answer period on school athletics to highlight the meeting.

Mr. Funk disclosed that eligibility, once one of the biggest problems of the WPIAL, is no longer a big problem. He explained that the schools themselves are now abiding by the rules and making sure of the eligibility and not trying to evade them as was the case some years ago.

NO EXONERATION OF TAX

Attorney for the Junior Federation of Women's club was told by all members of council there could be no exoneration of the amusement tax. The club intends to promote a show to raise money with which to purchase spectacles for needy persons, and the balance unused, would be given to the Margaret Henry home. Council said that while the movement was good, if one club was exonerated because of charity work, all would expect it.

MUST EXPEDITE WORK

ST. MARY'S HAS RALLY BY HOLY NAME

brant; the Rev. Francis P. King, Spiritual Director and Moderator of the Holy Name Society, was deacon; while the Rev. F. Albert Goralka, also of St. Mary's, served as sub-deacon. Rev. James J. O'Hara, of St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, served as Master of Ceremonies, assisted by Edward J. Nolte.

The senior male choir, was under the direction of Joseph J. DeVivo, director of sacred music at St. Mary's. Mrs. Wanda Giannone, presided at the console of the church's great organ. Assiting the senior choir were the boy soprano and concert choirs, whose voices were blended with the church chancel organ played from the sancutary.

The beautiful "Ave Maria", by W. J. Womlink, was sung by a special octette of male voices.

The Very Rev. Rector Kevin Patrick Connelly, C. P. of St. Michael Monastery, Hoboken, N. J., delivered the impressive and scholarly sermon during the Holy Mass. He used as the theme of his sermon, "Your Mother and My Mother, both the children of the Mother of God". In part he said,

"Regardless of where you travel in the broad expanse of this earth, you will always find men who have the greatest respect for the word "Mother." The world arose on occasion to have us honor and show our devotion on a particular day each year for our mothers. It is most fitting then that you Holy Name Men have chosen Mother's Day for your annual celebration. In addition to her, whom we honor today, Almighty God in His goodness has given you a spiritual mother—Holy Mother Church. Through her you have received the grace of the sacraments throughout every phase of your lives, in order that you might have a steady step in your progress throughout life.

Then he concluded with the admonition, "In your daily lives, invoke the aid of your heavenly mother given to you by Christ Himself from the cross, for never was it known that anyone ever went to her seeking aid and was left unaided."

March To The Cathedral

Following the joyful "Te Deum," the society, headed by the American Legion Band, marched to The Cathedral, where the rally continued under the moderation of the Rt. Rev. Monsignor. After the National Anthem, Father Goralka gave the invocation; Captain Wadlinger gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag; and Father King led in the recitation of the Holy Name Pledge.

The color guard, under the personal direction of Peter J. McGinty, was composed of members of the society who served in every branch of the armed forces in World Wars One and Two. Lt. James R. Rote was in command as Officer of the Day.

A Communion Breakfast was then served by the Ladies of St. Mary's under the direction of their president, Mrs. Thomas J. Maher, with Charles A. Hogue, as head chef. The breakfast was served by the career women of the parish, with Miss Mae Dagnon as hostess, and Miss Ann Gallagher, as assistant hostess. Our Ladies Sodality, with prefect, Miss Laura Miloser, assisted. During the breakfast, E. E. Branstetter presided at the console of the Hammond Organ.

R. Emmett Dagnon, president of the society, welcomed the men. William F. O'Loughlin, Executive Committeeman in charge of the Senior Public High School branch of the society, served as toastmaster. Mr. O'Loughlin briefly reviewed the history of the Holy Name Society in Lawrence County for the past forty-one years. Rev. Francis M. McCarter, Honorary President of the society, acknowledged the guests. Father McCarter spoke briefly to the men, congratulating them upon the progress they made under the dynamic leadership of Father King.

Continuing the program, George F. Chip, Jr., favored the assemblage with "Mother Machree" by Rita Young and Ernest Ball, and offered as an encore "The Rosary," by Ethelbert Nevins.

Paul J. Dougherty, M. A. as layman, spoke on "Inflation.'

Past presidents of the society, John J. Maher, Vincent G. Wadlinger, and R. Emmett Dagnon, were then presented with gold "Past Presidents Emblems' by the Honorary President, Father McCarter.

Francis R. Morrissey sang the beautiful "Ave Maria" by Roswig. He followed with "Little Mother of Mine," by Hagel-Goodwin, as an encore.

Monsignor Speaks

The climax of the Rally came with the address of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Schwenderman, S.T.D. He saide—

"A meeting of Catholic men is always significant. But, truly such a gathering as we have witnessed today is more than significant—it is inspiring. No such multitude of men come together aimlessly. Rather we look to the common cause or purpose which has brought you here — many with great sacrifice.

"This meeting of brother with brother of the Household of the Faith should have the happy result of giving each one of us an enlivened appreciation of his sonship in the one true Fold of Christ. To aid us reap such fruit from this forty-first annual rally of the Holy Name Society of Saint Mary Parish I would review with you this morning the fundamental marks of a true Catholic. We find those fundamental remarks enumerated by our Divine Lord Himself, as recorded in the final verses of the Gospel according to Saint Mark: 'Where believers go, these signs shall follow them: they will cast out devils in my name they will speak with tongues that are strange to them; they will take up serpents in their hands and drink poisonous draughts without harm they will lay hands upon the sick and make them recover.'

"These words may startle the ears of the man of this twentieth century, but they are as true today as they were in Christ's day. True, the signs were visible miracles in the first days of the church—the infant church needed the special aid of wonderous miracles, as the young sapling needs watering and particular care. Today, however, those signs of Christ apply to all 'who believe.'

"The loyal son of Christ's Church must drive out the devils of ignorance and malice. The ignorance that besets our modern world is not the ignorance of skills, arts or science. It is rather the ignorance of the very purpose of life, the plan of the Creator. It is an ignorance that is aligned with malice—which makes it an active force preventing the spread of saving knowledge. To resist this evil force, is plainly the duty of Catholics everywhere. To perform this work, they must live good lives that measure up to their professed faith, prayerful lives.

"In discharging this duty, the loyal son of the church will truely speak a language strange to a modern, godless world. The language of moral principle, of catholic devotion to home life, to domestic virtues will sound a strange sound in today's world."

Father King Speaks

Father King was then called, and briefly he thanked the men for the cooperation they had given. Because of that cooperation, the St. Mary Holy Name Society had attained both Diocesan and National recognition for one of the best organized and progressive Holy Name Societies in the country.

Following Father King's remarks, the society stood and to the acompaniment of the American Legion Band, sang "America." The Rev. Edward J. Pikulik, Pastor of Madonna Church, New Castle, brought the rally to a close with benediction.

State Police Say:

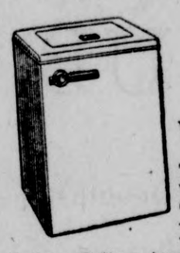

Many a promising career has been ended by some thoughtless mistake in traffic. It doesn't take much—maybe a few inches over the center line of the highway, a right or left turn just a second too soon, a few miles an hour above a safe driving speed. Any of these mistakes in traffic can snuff out a life in an instant. Those fatal traffic accidents you read about in your newspaper may not mean much to you, but in some home they mean a real tragedy.

DOG BITES BOY

Larry Bandin, aged eight years, of R. D. 3, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9:15 p.m., Sunday for a dog-bite wound of the right leg. The boy was bitten while playing with a neighbor's dog.

AT LAST — a Safe and Sane TRUCK BILL

Senate Bill No. 615

For nearly a quarter of a century Pennsylvania has limited (maximum) gross vehicle weights to 62,000 pounds. However, the wording of the law encourages use of the sprawling, unwieldly truck and full trailer and fails to recognize the efficient, more compact, more maneuverable tandem axle semi-trailer.

Senate Bill No. 615 would encourage use of the modern, efficient tandem-trailer by assigning it a gross vehicle weight of 60,000 pounds, and would permit a gross weight on single axle semi-trailers of 48,000 pounds, WITHOUT EXCEEDING THE PRESENT 20,000-POUND LIMITATION ON AXLE LOADS. Slight adjustments would be made in the gross weight of straight truck types within THE 20,000-POUND AXLE LOAD LIMITATION.

6 REASONS WHY IT SHOULD PASS:

1 — It holds the line on Pennsylvania's 20,000-pound axle load. Axle load means weight-on highway at a given point. It is limited by law to avoid excessive wear and tear on the road. The new law would keep the same axle-load limit that has been in force for years—a limit that is on a par with, or under, the axle-load limits of other states in the industrial northeast.

2 — It takes the profit out of overloading. The present law FINES THE DRIVER $25 or $50 on an overload . . . and that's all! The new bill TAKES THE OWNER'S PROFIT with a $100 flat fine PLUS $2 for each 100 pounds of excess load above the five percent allowance for error, and IMPOUNDS HIS TRUCK if he doesn't pay the fine, holds it until he does. That takes the profit out of overloading.

3 — It advances highway safety by REQUIRING trucks to have adequate brakes. Whereas the present law makes no attempt to control truck brake sizes, the new bill would REQUIRE at least one square inch of brake surface for every 55 pounds of gross load. Most trucks have better brakes than this . . . but the new law forces the laggards to come up to standard!

4 — It promises fewer truck-caused tie-ups on hills. Two things cause traffic tie-ups on hills: one is out-of-date highways, inadequate for today's traffic, and the other is slow trucks. The new truck bill tackles this problem for the first time by REQUIRING all trucks to be capable of REASONABLE SPEED, instead of snail's pace, up hills.

5 — It makes trucks bear a greater share of highway costs. An increase in truck LICENSE FEES is one of the main features of the new truck bill. This means that through the increased cost of license plates, TRUCKS WOULD CONTRIBUTE EVEN MORE than they have in the past to the expense of constructing and maintaining Pennsylvania's highways. (Truck taxes paid 167% of the highway maintenance costs in Pennsylvania in 1949!)

6 — It means more jobs for Pennsylvania industry. Our present out-dated truck law compels a Pennsylvania manufacturer to use four trucks to carry the same load his out-of-state competitor can carry on three! The new law gives the home-state producer—farmer, manufacturer or merchant—a better chance at the profits that BUILD BUSINESS AND JOBS IN PENNSYLVANIA. AND at the same time, conserves equipment vital to the national defense.

DOES the bill provide . . . . .

HEAVIER AXLE LOAD? . . . . . NO!
LONGER TRUCKS? . . . . . NO!
WIDER TRUCKS? . . . . . NO!
HIGHER TRUCKS? . . . . . NO!

State Prison Inmates Are Given Trade Training

By AL SPIVAK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, May 14. — A $2,500,000 a year business is flourishing in Pennsylvania's prisons today with net profits gauged by the rehabilitation of inmates.

"The fundamental objective is to see how many bad eggs we can make into good ones," explained state prison industries superintendent F. Herbert Cooper.

Three thousand convicts are paroled each year, he said, out of an inmate population of 8,000 in state penal institutions.

"By training them in trades we hope that they will become a useful part of society and not return to prison to be taken care of by taxpayers."

Cooper anticipates that by the end of 1951 there will be an average monthly employment of 1400 in prison industries—an increase of 100 over last year.

Shooting At $3,000,000 Mark

"We're shooting at production of goods worth $3,000,000 this year," he said. "This is $500,000 more than our 1950 mark."

The industries are assigned to state penal institutions on a "techno-geographic" arrangement, he pointed out.

Thus the concentration on steel is in western Pennsylvania, he said, and on textiles near Philadelphia.

The tag and sign plant at Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh handles the production of automobile license tags and highway signs for the commonwealth. Flat metal, clothing and textile plants also are in operation there.

The accent is on farming at Western's Rockview branch, with truck gardens, a greenhouse, a cannery and a tree nursery.

Eastern Penitentiary has a large printing plant at Philadelphia and a shoe factory, textile plant, hosiery and underwear factory and clothing plant at Graterford.

The Industrial Home for Women at Muncy has a power sewing plant, the Industrial School for Boys at White Hill has coffee and tea processing facilities and a furniture factory.

Sales of prison products are restricted by law to tax supported agencies, said Cooper.

These agencies, however, are not required to buy prison-produced goods.

"We've got to keep our standards high to compete with private bidders," he said. "We maintain a staff of four salesmen working on commissions to convince buyers of the quality of our product."

Competition with private industry is limited, Cooper emphasized, because only 16 prison industries operate in the state and production is limited to the number of inmates trained in a particular trade.

"Production in any one of our industries is far under one half of one per cent of the industry's commercial outlets," he noted.

The best yardstick of the effectiveness of prison industries, according to Cooper, is the State Parole Board's estimate that 88 per cent of the men released from prison are going straight. Training in trades, he said, has played a large part in bringing this about.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, May 14.—(INS)—Ceramic hats are dynamic new fashions for spring!

Paris originated the mode in keeping with an international trend toward more novelty in headgear to increase interest in millinery.

They have turned out little cloches, bonnets and mesh caps, peppered with tiny China flowers. Sometimes the posies have buds and leaves which fit close together and tinkle as the wearer moves her head.

The ceramic flowers are stitched securely to cloth or net or straw frames.

They're breakable, of course, so an emotional lady—who occasionally feels like "batting her head against a stone wall"—shouldn't.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 14.—Hollywood individualist Louis Hayward was due back in Hollywood today after making his 17th round-trip cross country at the wheel of his own car.

Hayward has been making the Hollywood-to-New York jaunts once or twice a year ever since he arrived in this country. During all those trips he has visited each state at least three times and has spent a few days in each of the well-known national parks.

"There is no better way to appreciate this great country than to knock about in your own car, take your time and visit everything there is to see," advises the swashbuckling hero of a score of movies.

Hayward motored back to New York to meet the boat bringing his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayward, from Surrey, England. The three of them drove back to Hollywood together with stopovers at the Grand Canyon and Carlsbad Caverns.

South African

Hayward, a native of the Transvaal, South Africa, was brought to Hollywood from the London stage in 1935. He drove from New York that year and immediately figured that this was the most wonderful country of all and it was for him.

He got his final citizenship papers the day before Pearl Harbor, 1941. He enlisted in the Marines shortly after that and saw plenty of action.

Hollywood points him out as an individualist because he likes to go batting around the country by himself, eat at what he calls "greasy spoons" enroute and hit the sack in motels wherever night overtakes him.

Waste Of Time

Most Hollywoodites would not be caught dead a stone's throw from the Sunset strip without the chauffeur in the driver's seat. They figure that they would be letting their fans down.

Another example of the unorthodox that filmsters single out in connection with Hayward is his aversion to night clubs. The actor thinks they are a complete waste of time. Hayward for five years owned the Chanteclair, one of the strip's flossiest. He never set foot in it once even for one on the house.

Seventeen of Hayward's last 21 pictures were swashbucklers. In 15 of the last 16 he received a percentage of the picture's profit and thereby made money far in excess of a studio salary.

The one he did not have a percentage of was a flop, "House By The River," a morbid study in crime in which Hayward strangled a maid.

Two Are Named On Student Council

Lawrence D. Lesh, 411 E. Sheridan avenue; and Bernard Paluszak, R. D. 3, Kenneth avenue, have been named independent representatives to the Student Council of Youngstown College. They will take office in September for the 1951-52 year.

Lesh, son of Mrs. Ethel S. Lesh, 714 W. Washington street, is junior in the William Rayen School of Engineering. Paluszak is a sophomore metallurgy student, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Paluszak.

Fast Congress Work Needed On Defense Production Bill

By THOMAS J. FOLEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Congress faces a lot of fast work if it expects to give the defense production act a two year extension before it expires June 30.

Such was the prediction of members of the House Banking and Currency committee which is now holding hearings on the important measure.

The House committee, along with its Senate companion group, has been listening to top government witnesses for a week and will listen to more next week.

Rep. Wolcott, ranking member of the committee, pointed out that industry witnesses probably will take at least another two weeks. This would mean up to at least the first week in June.

According to a rough time-table outlined by the Michigan Republican, the committee then would be behind closed doors at least another week considering the measure. That means at least June 11.

The current furore over Price Stabilizer DiSalle's beef rollback order is further expected to prolong the committee consideration.

For instance, the House Agriculture committee has scheduled Agricultural Secretary Brannan as a witness on the rollback question. Chairman Cooley also has said he expects to hear DiSalle again as well as cattle industry representatives.

General debate on the House floor on the defense bill is generally expected to last a week. Then voting on amendments and the bill itself would take at least another week.

If the Senate keeps pace and there aren't many differences between the two versions to be ironed out, Congress may possibly finish work on the bill during the last week in June. But those are big if's.

Waxing Of Tools Prolongs Life

NEW YORK—INS)—Basement tools and garden implements exposed to spring showers can be spared a lot of undue rust this season by a simple precaution.

According to Johnson's Consumer Service, with use of a coat of ordinary paste wax, hammers, saws and rakes can be protected from the elements throughout the season.

Wax should be applied liberally, the Johnson home experts say, and then allowed to dry completely before polishing.

Handymen around the house have found wax to be cleaner and more durable than oil. Such a coating does not rub off.

In waxing garden tools brought out for the season, homemakers should also apply a coating to wooden handles. This will preserve the wood and make it smoother and more comfortable in the gardener's hands.

Metal doorknobs and knockers, as well as locks exposed to spring showers, also benefit from wax protection.

VFW Post Has Mother's Event

Annual Banquet Is Held Saturday Eve

Honoring their mothers, an annual custom with Post 315, Veterans of Foreign Wars, members and other mothers gathered in the post rooms at 126½ East Washington street, Saturday evening for their annual Mother's Day banquet.

A fine dinner was served by the ladies' auxiliary and afterwards an interesting program was presented, with the Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church serving as toastmaster. He was introduced by T. John Stoner, past commander.

The principal address of the evening was given by Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp, rector of Trinity Episcopal church.

Musical numbers were given by barber shop quartet, composed of D. Jones, Reed McCullough, Wayn. Harper and Chester Biddle. A solo number was given by Reed McCullough, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mae Hammond.

Chairman Stoner introduced co-chairman Charles Smith and Donald Welshimer, who in turn thanked the ladies for their splendid assistance in making the event so successful.

Chairman Stoner also called upon Commander Edward Coyne and Past Commander Hardin Stebbins, who made appropriate remarks. Stebbins, who is warrant officer with the 229th Field Artillery, was home on leave from Camp Atterbury, Ind.

The balance of the evening was devoted to dancing, music being furnished by a well-known local orchestra.

Seek Paving Of Industrial Street

Al Hawkins of the Bossert Co., today asked council if the 1951 budget provided funds for blacktopping or paving Industrial street, which in one section is in bad condition and has resulted in damage to cars.

Council told him there was no provision for it.

However, it was stated by Councilman E. Gene Schweinsberg that the street department had put some slag on the street, and when more slag arrives this week, this will be put in Industrial street.

Mr. Hawkins stated that Mr. Schweinsberg and the streets department had been very cooperative in repairing the street.

In order for the city to legally open the street, sanction must be granted by the Public Utilities commission because it crosses a railroad, it was stated.

Upon suggestion of Mayor Haven, council authorized Solicitor Robert White to ask for permission to ordain and open the street.

Senator Warns On Testimony Being Given In Probe

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(INS)—Chairman Russell (D) Ga., warned senators conducting the MacArthur hearings today that the probe is "stripping the nation's security framework to the bare skeleton" and urged caution lest a "slip" increase G. I. casualties.

Russell declared that "I have lain awake at night wondering whether by some incautious act, some error of judgment, we may betray something of vital import to our country."

The senator issued his warning as Defense Secretary Marshall returned to the witness stand for the seventh day, to begin a preliminary summation of the administration's case in the MacArthur controversy.

Russell expressed particular concern about the heed for protecting the U. S. secret code by which military messages are sent.

At the height of Prohibition, there were estimated to have been at least 36,000 speakeasies in New York City.

Steamboat Race Again Scheduled

PITTSBURGH, May 14.—(INS)—The Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation today entered its steamboat, the William Larimer Jones, against U. S. Steel's Homestead in the sternwheeler race which climaxes Pittsburgh's "Welcome Week" celebration Saturday, June 2.

Ben Moreell, president of J. & L., issued the challenge to Clifford Hood, U. S. Steel executive vice president, who readily accepted.

The $25,000 John M. Roberts trophy, symbol of steamboat supremacy in Pittsburgh, now is in possession of U. S. Steel, winner of the pictureques race the last two years.

Expect Marshall To Complete Testimony Today

troyed Germany and Japan but to have developed an affirmative plan getting rid of Hitler and the Japanese war leaders but keeping some kind of functioning government (in Germany) so there wouldn't have been the vacuum in which the Communists could move as they did."

Meanwhile, senators clashed on the kind of defense Marshall has made for the administration in the controversy over MacArthur's removal.

Sen. Young (R) N. D., claiming Marshall made a "weak case," declared:

"His memory was poor on important matters and he was disappointingly uniformed."

Referred Many Questions

Marshall referred many questions to the joint chiefs of staff.

Young said one good result of the hearings "is that the British are beginning to come around to our way of thinking, as demonstrated in their recent change of heart in supporting an economic blockade of China."

Sen. Ellender (D) La., praised Marshall's testimony, saying:

"I am positive he has made a good case for himself. Marshall showed that the January 12 memo of the joint chiefs was their program in event we had to evacuate Korea."

Ellender referred to MacArthur's testimony that his plan for victory in Korea was supported by the January 12 memo. Marshall testified the memo actually contained 16 points, all tentative, and only four coincided with MacArthur's program.

Sen. Kem (R) Mo., said the hearings so far favor MacArthur's side of the case, adding:

Testimony Confused

"Secretary Marshall's testimony was confused. The voice was Marshall's but the hand was that of Mr. Acheson."

Kem declared that the greatest weakness in Marshall's testimony is that "he failed to answer the question of how we will win the war."

On the other hand, Kem declared, "MacArthur offered a plan —and the people are tired of indecision."

Marshall in his testimony suggested the so-called stalemate in Korea may be the "prelude to victory". However, he expressed this as only a "hope".

Sen. Martin (R) Pa., said the hearings "have done a lot of good". He explained:

"They are giving a good deal of information to the American people and questions of policy are now being discussed at every crossroads, in the schools, in the lodges, at union meetings, wherever people congregate. This is healthy."

Conviction Of John Maragon Is Upheld By Supreme Court

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(INS)—The supreme court today upheld the perjury conviction of former White House intimate John Maragon for his testimony before Senate "five per cent" investigators.

The one-time Kansas City bootblack can ask the high court to reconsider its action.

He faces eight to 24 months in prison for false testimony concerning his bank accounts and the fact that he was employed by the Albert Verley Perfume Company in 1946 while being paid by the State department.

British Airborne Brigade Alerted

LONDON, May 14.—(INS)—Britain's Sixteenth Independent Airborne Brigade was alerted over the week end with orders to "prepare to go abroad if necessary within a few days".

The unit is composed of 7,500 men.

All members were given overseas inoculations during the week end and full security measures were imposed at the Aldershot barracks where they are stationed.

A war office spokesman admitted "the brigade is under a routine warning to bring itself to a state of readiness". But he added:

"The order does not necessarily mean that the brigade is going anywhere."

Merchant Repaid By Man Who Took Food From Store

Tony Joseph, who operates Joseph's Market at 11-13 East Long avenue, was surprised to receive a letter Saturday, which contained a $5 bill, from a conscience-stricken local man.

The money was accompanied by a letter, which stated that the sender had taken food from his store some time ago, but had recently became a Christian, and wished to make restitution for the food he had taken and had not paid for.

This is the second instance of this kind which has happened to him, Mr. Joseph reports.

But if they marry British boys born this year they are likely to be widowed, for the life expectation of boys is only 66 years. Authority for this forecast is the British Registrar-General's report for 1950, which said that the exact age which the average girl can expect to reach is 70.63 years, and for the average boy 66.01 years.

Bessemer Corporal Writes Of Fighting In Korea

Sometimes we forget that the men in Korea aren't just an anonymous army of men doing a nasty job that seems to be necessary but that they are husbands, sons and brothers of someone. Perhaps the woman you sat next to on the bus has a son over there or the high school girl you saw in the drug store has a brother there.

News bulletins in the newspapers and on the radio are so very impersonal that the full impact of what is being said seldom hits until you or someone you know receives a letter from one of the men on the fighting front.

Mrs. Robert D. Hayes, State Line road, Bessemer, received such a letter from her husband, Cpl. Robert D. Hayes. Cpl. Hayes is in A Company of the 35th Infantry Regiment, a part of the 25th Division in Korea.

Parts of Cpl. Hayes' letter written April 30, we would like to quote. He tells about the, but, here, read it as Cpl. Hayes wrote it.

"As you probably know we have been running from the Chinese again. We are holding now and letting them come to us. The boys up on line are sure knocking them off, they have a real good line set up and all they have to do is wait on them to come.

"We were in the worse spot that we were ever in the other morning. I thought we would never get out of it. It took us from 2:10 to 6:15 to go two and a half miles in a truck. They had us surrounded and the roads blocked. It sure was a living "hell". I didn't think we were going to make it for awhile. I prayed the whole way and that was all that saved me I know.

"That was the time the rear echelon got it because we were the first ones out and we had to bring vehicles out with us. I started out with a jeep and somebody took it over one time, I jumped out of it and got a truck and finally ended up driving a half-track. I'd never driven one in my life much less been in one but I sure learned in a hurry.

"They sure had us zeroed in, they had machine guns on each side of the road up on the hills and we were getting a lot of cross-fire.

"I've never been so glad to see daylight come in my life."

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Learning to Play Alone

Three-year-old Anne hated to be alone. She almost literally clung to her mother's apron strings. For a time her parents thought this was cute and spoke proudly of their daughter's "devotion". But before long, this "devotion" became a nuisance. And they began to realize, too, that Anne would need to learn to be happy by herself as she grew older.

Of course, it's quite natural for young children to want to "hang around". Ordinarily, they will be bored and unhappy if left to their own devices. But we can work out a system that makes it possible for them to learn to enjoy playing by themselves.

As a first step, it's important to have challenging play materials. A youngster left with only a doll or a toy automobile will soon lose interest. Building blocks, clay, or a collection of odds and ends with which all kinds of things can be made are some of the things that keep up interest.

And, in the beginning at least, it's a good idea to "visit" the child every little while so that he doesn't have any of the feeling that he's being shut away from mother or father.

Patience, too, is important. If it takes a few tries to get results, one shouldn't worry. The important thing is that the child enjoys the times he has by himself. Forcible playing alone is hardly likely to lead to the goal in which we are interested.

Senior Party Plans Develop

Chairman Samuel Frank has called a meeting of the committee handling the Senior party for the graduates of the high school Tuesday night at 8 in the Castleton hotel.

The committee has been arranging a program for the graduates which will take place on the night of the annual dinner party for the class. The plan is to have the parents committee take over sometime near midnight and continue until about three in the morning.

The finance committee is within sight of its goal of sufficient funds to provide the entertainment but parents and others who have not yet contributed and care to do so are asked to send contributions to Robert Dickson in the Lawrence Savings and Trust company.

Indications are the party will be a success. There is considerable detail to dispose of an Mr. Frank urges all committee members and other parents of seniors who are interested to attend the meeting Tuesday night.

Central Christians Honor Dave Lewis

Sunday evening proved to be "Dave Lewis" night at the Central Christian church, East Long Avenue, when the faithful song leader and choir director concluded 21 years of faithful service at the South Side church.

The well-attended church service opened with a piano-organ duet participated in by Mrs. Henry Jenkins and Miss Evelyn Bernine, followed by an excellent song service directed as only Dave Lewis can do. A quartet, composed of Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Henry Jenkins, Mrs. Mary Lewis and Thomas Phelps sang a Welsh song, "Pentre Road."

Mr. Phelps and Mrs. Lewis pleased with a vocal duet which was followed by the devotions conducted by the pastor, James N. Rainey. "He Came To Me" was the title of a solo sung by Mr. Lewis. The church pastor spoke briefly on Christian service, pointing out the fact that when one is faithful in the church they will be fruitful Christians. He stated that the Scriptures point out that we must be faithful here in order to receive the crown of life.

Mr. Lewis sang at the close of the message "The Glory of His Presence" which was followed by an informal hymn sing. George Bauman chairman of the board after a number of remarks, presented Mrs. Lewis with a hand bag and Mr. Lewis with a fine piece of luggage.

The group adjourned to the church basement where refreshments were served by the deaconnesses. Singing of "Blest Be the Tie" and prayer by Mr. Rainey, closed the program. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are to leave in July to make their home in Canton, Ohio with their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Lewis.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

When W. C. Fields was the bright and shining star of Ziegfeld's Follies he often tested new sketches at a run-down, fourth-rate vaudeville house in Jersey City. If the patrons liked his antics there, it was a safe that the act would score equally well on Broadway. By the same token, he discovered via this early version of the "sneak prevue" technique what weak spots in his sketches needed bolstering, what arid stretches were in greatest need of a new laugh line.

After one try-out, Fields mingled with the audience to get some first-hand reactions. One that got under his skin came from a would-be George Jean Nathan with a whiskey breath. He snorted to the world at large, "Did you get a load of that palooka trying to imitate W. C. Fields? What a laugh!" Fields grabbed him by the arm and roared, "You paid a dime to get in here and see five acts. That's two cents an act. For two cents do you expect to see a genius like W. C. Fields?"

Braham Named C.D. Director

Same Position Different Title

County commissioners have submitted the name of Judge W. Walter Braham to Governor John S. Fine for appointment as Civil Defense Director.

Judge Braham was namer Coordinator of Civil Defense by Governor James H. Duff and has served in that position for a year. Under the new act the county commissioners must recommend the name of a director to be appointed by the governor and this has been done.

It is the same job, same responsibilities, only the title is different. The renumeration is the same, nothing per year but it is not taxable.

DISASTER CUPS

Lookng towards the possible need of cups and containers for use in bomb disaster, the Civil Defense has stocked 1,000.000 paper cups and containers in Wilkinsburg for use in Western Pennsylvania.

Judge Braham has been notified of the stockpile and in case it would be necessary to care for evacuees in this district the cups and containers would be useful

AMEND PETTITION

The township supervisors of Little Beaver township will not issue an order of abandonment for 1.2 miles of Township Highway 356. Instead, the Board of Viewers will issue an order for its closing.

The case has been closed with a settlement to the farmers affected and the township road closed for a distance of 1.2 miles.

Report 25 Million Cars Use Turnpike In Past Ten Years

HARRISBURG, May 14.—Since October 1, 1940, until January 1, 1951, almost two and one-half billion miles have been driven by more than 25 million motorists on the Pennsylvania Turnpike system, it was disclosed today by Thomas J. Evans, chairman of the commission.

"The commission," Mr. Evans added, "has just completed the traffic and revenue audit for this period and its report is as follows:

"In slightly more than ten years of operation, a total of 25,062,157 vehicles of all types have traveled 2,373,609,891 miles and paid $42,065,817.10 in fares, an average of slightly more than a cent and a half per mile. The breakdown shows that passenger cars totaled 1,736,890,867 miles at an average of slightly less than a cent a mile; trucks accounted for 610,803,258 miles at an average of a little over four cents a mile, while bus operators have rolled up 25,915,766 miles and averaged in tolls three and one half cents a mile.

"In 1950, during which all previous annual records were surpassed, 4,488,538 fare-paying motorists traveled 453,227,352 miles to contribute to a revenue total of $9,022,398.31.

Social Security Obligations Of Self Employed Explained

Apparently there is some misunderstanding of the self-employed person's obligations under the amended Social Security Act, according to Myron Milbouer, manager of the New Castle Social Security office.

"Old-age and survivors insurance is not optional for people who are working for themselves in their own trade or business, or as partners in such enterprises," he stated today. "If you are self-employed and earn as much as $400 in net profit from your business or businesses in any taxable year after December 31, 1950, your social security coverage is compulsory by law," he added.

The only exceptions, the local manager explained, are income derived from self-employment as owner-operator of an agricultural enterprise, and self-employment income derived from practice as a physician, lawyer, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, naturopath, veterinarian, architect, OPA, licensed, registered or full-time practicing public accountant, Christian Science practitioner, professional engineer, or funeral director.

This means that, if you are not in one of the excepted groups, you have the same obligation to report your own income and pay the self-employment tax as you now have to report and withhold social security taxes on your employees' earnings.

However, as a self-employed person you do not report yourself along with your employees. Your self-employment income must be reported annually on your income-tax Form 1040, Schedule C, especially revised for this purpose. Your first such report is due March 15, 1952, covering your self-employment income for the taxable year 1951, and payable along with the report is your self-employment social security tax. The tax is 2¼% of the first $3,600 of your net business profit. If you are a partner in a business, the tax is levied on the first $3,600 of your distributive share of the partnership net profits, whether or not the profits are distributed.

Mr. Milbouer pointed out that where you work as an employee under social security and have also been self-employed, you will report as self-employment income for social security purposes only the difference between the amount that has been reported for you as wages and $3,600. For example, if you have been paid wages of $1,000 during the calendar year of 1952 and had self-employment income of $4,000, the $1,000 wages will be reported for social security purposes. But you will report only $2,600 as self-employment income for social security purposes and pay tax only on that $2,600.

Experts Tell Effect Of Higher Education Matrimonial Effect

NEW YORK, May 14—(INS)—Insurance experts said that higher education apparently "hinders rather than helps" the American girl's chances for romance that leads to matrimony.

According to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians, among women in the 35 to 44 age group with less than seven years of schooling, almost 95 per cent have been married at one time or another.

Among those with more schooling, the proportion married declines to 90 per cent for high school graduates and to 83 per cent for those with at least one year of college.

The statisticians said that girls with higher education who do marry, acquire husbands with more schooling.

The total number of married women in the United States has increased by some eight million since 1940 to 38 million. The company said:

"The present total reflects the marriage boom of the war and immediate post war years, and is a record high, not only in absolute numbers but percentage-wise to the adult 35 years of age and only one sixth over 55.

The statisticians said also that the odds are two to one the wife will outlive her husband.

Indians Scalp Butler Twice 16-9, 21-9, Increase League Lead

Indians On Warpath For 17 Runs In 4th Inning Sunday; New Record

The New Castle Indians baseball team celebrated "Mothers Day" yesterday, by setting a new Mid-Atlantic league scoring rcord, for one-inning, 17 runs, as they scalped the Butler Tigers 21-9 at Flaherty Field.

It is doubtful if ever any fans saw a more wierd exhibition of baseball as the Indians strode 22 men to the plate, collected 12 hits, drew four walks, and saw Butler commit three errors, in the nightmarish fourth inning to overcome a 7-0 deficit.

Saturday night the Indians laid a 16-9 defeat on the Tigers, to increase their league lead to a game and a half as Erie and Lockport split a pair of games over the weekend.

Meet Tigers Again Tonight

Manager Al Milnar will send Bill Ciske, the blond Wisconsin hurler, to the mound against Butler tonight seeking his second loop win. Ciske defeated Butler in the opening series at Butler 16-4, on an eight-hitter.

Big Joe Miskiewicz the 19-year-old Waterport, Mass., southpaw got credit for his second loop win in relief yesterday, taking over in the fourth as Lee Bickel faltered.

Ben Rossman was credited with his second win Saturday night, as he hurled a steady game, although found for 14 hits. He fanned nine men.

Game time tonight is 8:30 o'clock.

Lavigne Hits Fourth Homer

Don Lavigne on Saturday night his his fourth home run of the current campaign to tie for the league lead. Chet Butler emerged from his slump to hit his first homer Saturday night.

Bob Watson, the rotund Butler catcher, went home run crazy here Saturday and Sunday, hitting three homers, one Saturday and two yesterday to make him four for the season. Quaratarraro and Mike Coppola also hit homers for Butler Saturday. Coppola also hit one over the fence here yesterday.

Butler used a total of nine hurlers in the two games over the weekend.

Indians Real Clubbers

The New Castle Indians have set probably another league record for hits and runs in eight games. To date the Indians have 109 runs on 110 hits for an average of a little over 13 hits per game and a little over 13 runs per game.

Green, Kowalski, Frisina, Toles and Horne fattened their batting averages yesterday with four hits apiece. Bill Green led the hit parade over the weekend, getting seven hits in 11 trips. Ted Toles, the young negro star, had six for 11.

The Indians will be away the next six days playing eight games at Erie and Niagara Falls. The Indians will be back home next Monday night to meet the second place Erie Sailors in a three-game stand.

Wrigley has tried to build a pennant winning team. He has poured millions of dollars into the Cubs and its farm organization. He won't say exactly how much he has spent but the chewing gum king and his lieutenants expect to have a first or second place team by 1954.

Gus Bigott, the 34-year-old Venezuelan who won letters in tennis and soccer 13 years ago, is duplicating the feat this year at Penn State. Although much slower, his coaches give him full credit for experience and cunning.

Yankees Lose Two, Indians Win, Tie; Bucs-Cubs Split

By HOWARD SIGMAND
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 14—It is no wonder the New York Yankees are willing to go as high as the moon in their offers for first baseman Ferris Fain of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Fain is just the guy to fill that uncertain spot around first base for Casey Stengel. Everybody knows this, particularly the ruling Macks who have nixed every proposition made by the Bombers for his talented services. The A's want a carload of players for their Ferris boy and they back up their desires with records.

Fain, who will be 29-years-old in a couple of weeks, is the stick-out first baseman in the American League as he demonstrated to the Yankees yesterday. He was a big factor in the Athletics' double triumph of the Bombers, 5 to 4 and 9 to 6.

Indians Win, Tie

Cleveland moved into a tie for third place with Chicago by beating the White Sox, 11 to 2 and then playing to a 4 to 4 tie. Bob Feller won his fourth straight game as he limited the Sox to eight hits.

The Boston Red Sox slammed out eleven hits, including homers by Ted Williams and Vern Stephens, to blast the Washington Senators, 10 to 1.

St. Louis and Detroit split. Ned Garver went all the way as the Brownies prevailed in a 13 to 10 first game slugfest and Detroit won the second, 5 to 3 for Ted Gray on a three-run homer by Vic Wertz.

Dodgers Win

The Brooklyn Dodgers walloped the Boston Braves, 12 to 6.

The New York Giants swept the Philadelphia Phillies, 11 to 2 and 4 to 2.

Cubs-Pirates Split

Chicago and Pittsburgh broke even, the Pirates winning the opener, 2 to 1 behind Mel Queen and the Cubs taking the nightcap, 6 to 0.

The Cincinnati Reds took the St. Louis Cardinals twice, 7 to 2 and 6 to 3.

Sammy Snead Wins Greenbrier Tourney

WHIE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., May 14—(INS)—Sammy Snead nourished his victory-hungry record today with a double portion of pride and money.

Snead broke the ice twice yesterday by winning the $10,000 Greenbrier Open Golf tournament. It was the first time the veteran pro has won the tournament on his home links in the four years it has been held.

Rex Barney Walks 16 Men In Debut

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 14.—(INS)—Rex Barney, strong-armed right hander who spent five years with the Brooklyn Dodgers trying to master control, made his Fort Worth debut last night and walked 16 men to set a new Texas league record.

Barney gave up only two hits in the 7 2/3 innings he pitched against Houston but was removed after walking four in the eighth. Houston was leading, 2 to 1, when Barney left and eventually won, 6 to 2.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

PROVIDING A BILL in the Massachusetts legislature is passed, the present Sunday night curfew would be repealed. At present, Massachusetts law permits double-headers to continue after 6:30 p.m., only if artificial light is not required. . . . First New Castle to Cleveland excursion will be run June 3, to the Yankees-Indians twin bill. Arrangements are being discussed for an excursion to New York City. If the plan is adopted those who go, will see a good show in addition to baseball, according to Kiski Marino. . . . Rains of Thursday night and Friday have swollen trout streams. . . . Slowness in conducting negotiating for Outfielder Gus Zernial cost the A's money. In 1946, Gus was with Burlington, in the Carolina league. His hitting at the start of the season was off and his fielding was weak, hence Manager Steve Bysco offered to sell him to the A's for $500. During the time the negotiations were under way, Gus belted a couple of home runs and Bysco called off the deal. . . . A three minute intermission after the fifth inning has been put into effect by St. Paul of the American Association which permits servicing of the infield and enables fans to leave seats without missing any of the game. . . . John Pezullo manages Hillsville and John Nemo pilots Croton, both City Baseball league teams.

Urzetta Will Seek 'Slam'

Will Seek British Amateur Title

By THOMAS C. WATSON
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 14.—The next step for U. S. amateur golf champion Sam Urzetta is an assault on golf's "little slam".

Urzetta, who played a prominent part in getting the United States its 12th Walker cup triumph in 13 tries against Great Britain over the weekend, is priming himself for his first try at the British amateur tourney which begins next week.

Genial Sammy, who comes from Rochester, N. Y., won the U. S. amateur last fall. The last man to pull the "little slam" was Lawson Little back in 1934 and 1935.

Urzetta and his team-mates are spending a few days at the historic Royal and Ancient Country club while U. S. officials and the British governing body attempt to work out differences in the golf rules of the two countries.

British amateur linksmen put forth a tremendous effort even though they lost. U. S. captain Willie Turnesa said he thought the opposition had been real "rugged".

SHIRTS AND STOMACHS

Shirts and stomachs both need starch. It makes shirts look better and stomachs feel better.

Starch is the fuel which keeps the human motor going. It is like gas for the auto. The auto and the body are pretty much alike. The auto needs gas and oil and parts.

The body needs carbohydrate and fat and protein. The carbohydrate provides the "get up and git".

The fat provides lubriaction but must be watched carefully or it will gum up the works.

Protein is needed for growth and replacements.

Vitamins and minerals provide the hot spark to keep things moving.

What a thrill

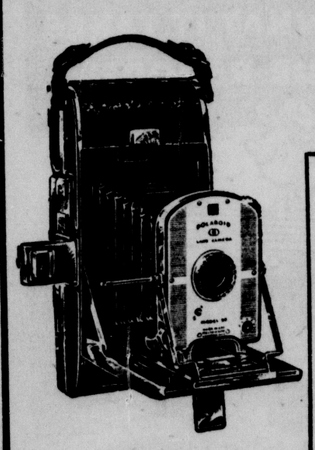

to see your pictures the minute you snap them!

Guaranteed by Good Housekeeping

There's no thrill like seeing your pictures the minute you take them—with a Polaroid Land* Camera. Aim . . . snap — sixty seconds later you hold in your hand a beautiful, lasting print. Yes, it's as simple as that to use the Polaroid Camera. No liquids . . . no dark room . . . no fuss—the camera and film do all the work.

Mutual Funds are a great new force in American Life. Our monthly systematic Plan for the accumulation of WELLINGTON FUND shares represents a convenient and complete arrangement to assist small, average and wealthy people to——accumulate capital, and
—build retirement income.
Because a low cost optional life insurance feature makes the Plan self-completing in event of death, it is ideally suited for Estate Planning.
Payments in denominations of $10 to $500 a month are made by our customers directly to a well-known bank, organized 1812, as custodian in their behalf. Also, Fully Paid Plans are available for lump sum investments of $500 and more. The Nation's oldest balanced Mutual Investment Fund is the vehicle.
You may, if qualified, develop a permanent full time career, with repeat commissions with our successful organization—in Pennsylvania past 20 years.
This is a real opportunity for a man who is not satisfied with his present earnings and wishes to make a gradual switch to a more profitable field.
You should be above 35 years old and have a splendid reputation in your home community. Previous experience not necessary because we thoroughly train and counsel professionally with you.

Notice of Public Auction Sale of Real Estate

Notice is hereby given that the City of New Castle will offer for sale at Public Auction on May 29, 1951 at 9:00 A.M., E.S.T., 10:00 A.M., D.S.T., on the premises, all of the following described real estate, situate in the Sixth Ward of the City of New Castle, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Bounded on the North by City Line and Union Township; on the East by Sampson Street, a 45 foot street, as the same has been for a long time established, opened and used; and on the West by the re-located Sampson Street, which is an extension of State Highway Route 422 in the City of New Castle, of the width of 70 feet.

The said land is a long narrow strip of land, containing approximately 16,000 square feet, marked Lot No. 362 on Section 12 of the City Survey, lying between the old location of Sampson Street and the new location of Sampson Street. Although it is not the present intention of the City of New Castle to abandon or vacate the 45 foot street, heretofore established, opened and used for a long time as Sampson Street, the conveyance of the land herein advertised for sale will be without any warranty whatsoever, or obligation upon the City to continue to keep the said street open and maintain the same.

The land herein advertised for sale was condemned and taken by the City of New Castle by an Ordinance of the City adopted the 2nd day of December, 1946 and recorded in Ordinance Book 18, Page 173, for the purpose of changing the location of said State Highway Route 422 and was later deeded to the City of New Castle in absolute settlement of damages for the said taking, by the then owners of the said property, to-wit:

Deed of E. I. duPont de Nemours and Company, dated May 8, 1947 and recorded in Deed Book 350, Page 154.

Deed of the Heirs of Frank and Mary Mitolo, dated July 23, 1947 and recorded in Deed Book 346, Page 492.

The said street improvement has been completed and the land herein advertised is not necessary or useful to the City for street purposes and must, therefore, be sold. If at the said public sale or auction, a satisfactory price is received for the said land, it will be sold to the highest bidder and possession thereof will be given immediately upon the payment of the purchase price. If a suitable price is not received for the property, it will not be sold by the City at this time. The City reserves the right to postpone or discontinue this sale in case no satisfactory bid is received.

All persons desiring to bid on the said property shall be required to deposit with the City Clerk prior to the time of the sale a certified check or cash in the amount of $300.00. The deposit of the successful bidder shall be applied upon the purchase price of the said land. The balance of the purchase price shall be paid in cash upon the delivery of a good and sufficient special warranty deed from the City to the purchaser, after the passage of a proper ordinance authorizing the same. If the said property is sold by the City, the said sale should be made subject to the reasonable approval of the title to the said land by the successful bidder's attorney.

JACK H. FRITZ, City Clerk.

Advertisement

Jack H. Fritz, City Clerk, will receive proposals and bids until Monday, May 28, 1951 at 10 o'clock A.M., D.S.T., 9 o'clock A.M., E.S.T., as follows:

For the sale of certain unused and unnecessary land in the First Ward of the City of New Castle, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, which was condemned for park purposes by an Ordinance of the City of New Castle adopted the 23rd day of October, 1931 and recorded in Ordinance Book 15, Page 256, and which lands were later deeded to the City of New Castle in settlement of the damages for the condemnation and taking of the same by the then owner of the said property, to-wit:

By Deed of the Day Real Estate Company, dated October 1, 1930 and recorded in Deed Book 276, Page 459.

The said lands were purchased by the City as aforesaid for park purposes, but are no longer necessary or useful for such purposes, and in the judgment of the Council should be disposed of. Said lands are described as follows, to-wit:

Bounded on the North by other lands of the said City purchased at the same time, a distance of 406 feet, more or less; on the East by land of Oscar Levine 150 feet, more or less; on the South by Winter Avenue, 407 feet, more or less; and on the West by Locust Street, 150 feet, more or less; and being Lots Nos. 78 to 86, inclusive, on the North Hill Plaza plan of lots, and City Lots Nos. 218 to 224, inclusive on Section 20 of the City Survey and City Lots Nos. 1 and 2 on Section 21 of the City Survey.

Bidders may submit proposals to purchase any one or all of the nine (9) lots comprising the said land, and the Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to accept bids for a part or all of the said land.

All bids and proposals shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope, plainly marked "Bid For Purchase of Lots —— on Section —— of the City Survey."

In compliance with the provisions of the Third Class City Code, Section 3722, as amended by the Act of 1947, P.L. 33, no contract for the sale of the said lands shall or may be executed or valid by or against the City, until the sale of the said land has been approved by the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County, and appropriate ordinances have been passed by the Council of the City, authorizing the sale of the said land.

Each proposal in response to this advertisement should be accompanied by a certified check in favor of the City of New Castle for 20% of the amount of the bid or bids so submitted.

Resolution

WHEREAS, an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved June 25, 1947 being Act No. 481, and its supplements and amendments, authorizes boards of school directors of school districts of the fourth class to levy, assess and provide for the collection of certain taxes on persons, transactions, occupations, privileges and personal property within the limits of such school districts as the said boards may determine, subject to certain exceptions and limitations therein set forth; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the authority conferred by the said Act, and its supplements and amendments, it is the intention of the Board of School Directors of the School District of the Township of Shenango, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, at its regular meeting on Tuesday, May 29th, 1951 at 7:30 P.M. to adopt a Resolution assessing, levying and providing for the collection of a tax at the rate of one percent of the value thereof, which rate of taxation expressed in dollars and cents amounts to One Dollar ($1.00) on every One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) of such valuation for general revenue purposes to wit, the general purposes of the school district as permitted by law, on all salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation earned on and after July 1, 1951 by residents of the said School District and irrespective of where the said services are performed or work done, and on the net profits and income earned on and after July 1, 1951 of business, professions, or other activities conducted or carried on by such residents, irrespective of where the said profits are earned.

The reason which in the judgment of the said School Directors necessitates the imposition of the tax is the need for additional revenue for school purposes. The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from the tax is Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00.) for the school or fiscal year beginning July 1, 1951.

The said Resolution imposing the said tax shall go into effect thirty (30) days after its adoption and within the said thirty (30) days taxpayers aggrieved by the Resolution shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lawrence County upon giving bond with sufficient security in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) approved by the Court to prosecute the appeal with effect and payment of costs. The petition shall set forth the objections to the tax and the facts in support of such objections and shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the petitioners that the averments of the petition are true and the petition is not filed for the purpose of delay.
